

The mission of The ART Region of Texas is; To encourage enrichment and exposure for the region of North East Texas, to further artistic and economic growth, increase the overall quality of life and reduce poverty". Our goals include holding cooperative events, increasing tourism, and creating economic growth, not only for the artists, but for all communities in the area.

The Art Region of Texas (ART) members hold monthly ART Round Table meetings to further the individual artistic focus of NE Texas artists and communities, while enhancing overall artistic and economic growth for the region and to bring increased success to NE Texas by sharing previous successes coupled with a focused use of shared knowledge.

The ART Region of Texas is a Tax Deductable 501c3 Organization, made up of and operated by volunteers. All funding is through sponsorships, donations, or grant funding.

If you would like to help advance the Mission and Goals of the ART Region of Texas please consider supporting the Organization through a Donation, Sponsorship or Grant.

Donations are typically one time monetary gifts given by individuals. A Sponsorship is recommended for individual artist or performers, cities or community groups, and artistic businesses who wish to be active members of the organization. Grants are endowments provided by foundations or individuals.
